

Design Your Perfect Wedding Worksheet

Preparation:

- Create Pinterest or mood board of ideas you like
- Read wedding blogs and magazines to get an idea of styles
- Check out instagram tags - #weddingplanning #weddingstyle and others for ideas.

Venue:

Date:

Must Have:

Consider what you really want at your wedding, and what's important to both of you, eg: a certain sort of flower, any heirlooms or reminders of loved ones who can't make it.

Ideas:

What have you seen on Pinterest / Instagram and really liked? Include as much as you can, no matter how impractical you might think it is! Everything is possible at this point, and you can narrow it down later. Consider wedding styles, popular colours, photos you'd love to have...

Design Your Perfect Wedding Worksheet

Time to get specific!

Work through the boxes below and overleaf, noting ideas you like for each category. Don't worry about picking just one of anything at the moment - you want to consider all your options!

Wedding Styles

Black tie or casual? Boho or Gatsby?

Where did we meet?

Paris? The office? Skiing or at the gym? Is it something you want to take aspects of to use when designing your day?

Favourite Colours

Flowers

What are your favourite flowers? If they're out of season, consider using fake flowers or having them on your stationery!

Seasonal

Summer wedding? Need flip flops for the beach? Or umbrellas and blankets for an outdoor autumn ceremony?

Feeling

Casual vibes, with a disco and a barefoot bride? How do you and your guests want to feel on the day?

Most important parts of the day

What do you want to concentrate on? Making sure your photos have the perfect backdrop? Having that statement cake?

VIPs

Is your dog your ringbearer? Wish your horse could come to the ceremony? Got an in-law travelling from Australia?

Design Your Perfect Wedding Worksheet

What represents us as a couple and as individuals?

Do you love football? Is your cat the most important member of your family? Did you meet at a book shop? Is there anything representing either or both of you that you'd like to be included in your wedding design?

Is the venue important?

Art deco venue? Maybe consider 20s style stationery. How about an outdoor wedding? Is it abroad? Do you want to include relevant illustrations/themes which complement your choice of venue?

Notes

Design Your Perfect Wedding Worksheet

Time to pick your favourites!

Work through the boxes below, narrowing down your favourites for each category.

Style & Feeling

Themes

Must Have

Colours & Flowers

What Next?

Now you've hopefully got a clearer idea of what you want your wedding to look like, so what next?

Book in for a free stationery consultation by emailing or calling using the details below, and see how Giftast can help bring your vision to a reality! Wedding Stationery can be used to carry your theme from Save the Dates, through Bridal Party gifts, all the way to Thank You cards and beyond.

If the idea of planning your wedding still feels overwhelming, check out our blog, Six Steps to Stress Free Wedding Planning, and other useful information on:

www.giftast.com/category/stress-free-wedding-planning-tips